

This is an alarming situation--the media must remain diversified. Please vote against the proposal to allow vertical media concentration. We need more media in different hands.